RE: PROTOCOL NRG-DT001 – COVID19: Analytical Pharmacology Core Laboratory Closure

Mandatory Specimen Submission for Pharmacokinetics and Pharmacodynamics from Serum and Plasma Samples

The Analytical Pharmacology Core Laboratory at The SKCCC at Johns Hopkins will be closed due to COVID19 effective Wednesday March 18th, 2020 until further notice.

Since shipments may not be prepared nor arrive prior to Tuesday March 17th, 2020, please do not ship any samples to the Laboratory despite the terms stipulated in the protocol as no one will be present to receive these. The plasma and serum samples can be stored at -70°C until they are ready to be shipped.

Thanks for your understanding and cooperation during this unprecedented time. If you have questions, please contact Dr. Rudek (mrudek2@jhmi.edu).
